2. Select “Exam Registration.”
3. Log in using the username and password provided to you in your pre-registration email. If you forgot your password, click the “forgot password” link and it will be emailed to you.
4. Select “IC&RC” from the organization dropdown menu and click the “Next” button.
5. To reschedule an exam, click “edit.” This will cancel your current exam date and prompt you to immediately select a new date.
6. To cancel an exam, click “cancel.” Once your exam is cancelled, you can log on to www.iqttesting.com at a later date to select a new examination date. Please note, your designated testing window to take the exam will remain the same.
7. An email confirmation will be automatically sent to you when you cancel or reschedule your examination.

You will be required to pay a rescheduling or cancellation fee to IQT before you are able to reschedule or cancel your exam.

You are unable to reschedule or cancel an examination less than 5 days PRIOR to your scheduled examination. Exceptions are made only for the following four reasons: jury duty, death in immediate family within 14 calendar days of the examination date, illness or medical complication within 14 calendar days prior to the examination date OR the scheduled examination date, and military deployment.

If one of these four reasons prevents you from testing, you must contact IQT directly and provide sufficient documentation of the event that has occurred. Documentation must be submitted to IQT within 14 calendar days of your missed examination. There will be no additional fee incurred under these circumstances. IQT can be reached toll free at +1-866-773-1114.

If you fail to show up for your examination at the scheduled time, do not have the proper identification, or your Candidate Admission Letter, you will not be permitted to sit for your exam. You will be considered a “No-Show”, your examination fees will be forfeited, and you will be required to re-register and pay all fees to ACCBO prior to sitting for the exam. Candidates who miss their scheduled examinations must reschedule with ACCBO.

Prerequisites of the Exam
In order to be placed for this exam, you must submit a completed application packet to the ACCBO office.

SPECIAL TESTING PROCEDURES
Individuals with disabilities and/or religious obligations that require modifications in test administration may request specific procedure changes, in writing, to ACCBO. With the written request, the candidate must provide official documentation of the accommodation requested. Submitted documentation must follow ADA guidelines in that psychological or psychiatric evaluations must have been conducted within the last three years. All medical/physical conditions require documentation of the treating physician’s examination conducted within the previous three months.

INSTRUCTIONS
Once you have completed this application packet, please fill out the examination registration form on the right side of this page.
The Principles of Ethics are a model of standards of exemplary professional conduct. These principles of the Code of Ethical Conduct for Prevention Professionals express the professional’s recognition of his/her responsibilities to the public, to service recipients, and to colleagues. They guide members in the performance of their professional responsibilities and express the basic tenets of ethical and professional conduct. The Principles call for commitment to honorable behavior, even at the sacrifice of personal advantage. These Principles should not be regarded as limitations or restrictions, but as goals for which Prevention Professionals should constantly strive. They are guided by core values and competencies that have emerged with the development of the field.

Principles

I. Non-Discrimination
A Prevention Professional shall not discriminate against service recipients or colleagues based on race, religion, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, economic condition, or physical or mental disability, including persons testing positive for AIDS-related virus. A Prevention Professional should broaden his/her understanding and acceptance of cultural and individual differences, and in so doing render services and provide information sensitive to those differences.

II. Competence
A Prevention Professional shall observe the professional’s technical and ethical standards, strive continually to improve personal competence and quality of service delivery, and discharge professional responsibility to the best of his/her ability. Competence is derived from a synthesis of education and experience. It begins with the mastery of a body of knowledge and skill competencies. The maintenance of competence requires a commitment to learning and professional improvement that must continue throughout the professional’s life.

A. Professionals should be diligent in discharging responsibilities. Diligence imposes the responsibility to render services carefully and promptly, to be thorough, and to observe applicable technical and ethical standards.

B. Due care requires a professional to plan and supervise adequately any professional activity for which he or she is responsible.

C. A Prevention Professional should recognize limitations and boundaries of competencies and not use techniques or offer services outside of his/her competencies. Each professional is responsible for assessing the adequacy of his or her own competence for the responsibility to be assumed.

D. When a Prevention Professional is aware of unethical conduct or practice on the part of an agency or prevention professional, he or she has an ethical responsibility to report the conduct or practices to appropriate authorities or to the public.

III. Integrity
To maintain and broaden public confidence, Prevention Professionals should perform all professional responsibilities with the highest sense of integrity. Integrity can accommodate the inadvertent error and the honest difference of opinion. It cannot accommodate deceit or subordination of principle.

A. Personal gain and advantage should not subordinate service and the public trust. All information should be presented fairly and accurately. Each professional should document and assign credit to all contributing sources used in published material or public statements.

B. Prevention Professionals should not misrepresent either directly or by implication professional qualifications or affiliations.

C. A Prevention Professional should not be associated directly or indirectly with any services or products in a way that is misleading or incorrect.

IV. Nature of Services
Above all, Prevention Professionals shall do no harm to service recipients. Practices shall be respectful and non-exploitative. Services should protect the recipient from harm and the Professional and the profession from censure.

A. Where there is evidence of child or other abuse, the Prevention Professional shall report the evidence to the appropriate agency and follow up to ensure that appropriate action has been taken.

B. Where there is evidence of impairment in a colleague or a service recipient, a Prevention Professional should be supportive of assistance or treatment.

C. A Prevention Professional should recognize the effect of impairment on professional performance and should be willing to seek appropriate treatment for himself/herself.

V. Confidentiality
Confidential information acquired during service delivery shall be safeguarded from disclosure, including - but not limited to - verbal disclosure, unsecured maintenance of records, or recording of an activity or presentation without appropriate releases.

VI. Ethical Obligations for Community and Society
According to their consciences, Prevention Professionals should be proactive on public policy, and legislative issues. The public welfare and the individual’s right to services and personal wellness should guide the efforts of Prevention Professionals who must adopt a personal and professional stance that promotes the well-being of all humankind.

I have read, understood and agree to adhere to the above stated principles.

Ethics Commission Policies

The ACCBO Ethics Commission shall review and potentially investigate all complaints filed against any of its certified constituency.

When a complaint is filed, the ACCBO Ethics Commission shall notify the certified individual by mail at the last known address available to ACCBO. The certified individual shall have opportunity to respond to any grievance or allegation filed against them.

In order to file a complaint on a certified Preventionist, please contact ACCBO for the appropriate forms.

Criminal History Background Check

Updated January 2013

Directions

The applicant shall complete a fingerprint card and include the card with this application. Fingerprint cards can be administered at your local law enforcement agency and cost ranges from $15-$25.

ACCBO will submit your fingerprint card to the Oregon State Police Clearinghouse, where a National Background Check will be completed. The National Background check is incorporated into your application fee. This process will begin for all CPS applicants from January 2013 onward.

Should the applicant successfully complete the certification process, their certificate shall state that they have passed the ACCBO Prevention Standards criminal history check through OSP. Those standards shall be printed on the reverse side of the certificate.

Convictions listed in ORS 342.143 or the substantive equivalent of any of those crimes if the conviction occurred in another jurisdiction or in Oregon under a different statutory name or number shall be refused certification, until such time that their record becomes expunged, or until such time the decision is reversed by the board upon appeal in contested cases.

Recertification and Extensions Policies

Recertification Policy

- 40 Hours of Continuing Education in Prevention Topics
  - including a minimum of 6 hours of prevention ethics every two years

Certification is granted for a two-year period. It may be renewed by Recertification, a process designed to assist the Certified Prevention Specialist in maintaining and expanding competence. If your certification has lapsed you must file for an extension, otherwise you will be dropped from the Certified Prevention Specialists roster. You will receive a recertification packet from ACCBO 30-60 days prior to the expiration date of your certificate.

1. The recertification applicant must demonstrate 40 clock hours of continuing education in prevention education and ATOD education.
   - college course work
   - workshops
   - inservices
   - training
   - classes

2. The recertification applicant must complete the Record of Training Education and attach all certificates or transcripts. Only recorded training hours accompanied by a certificate will be accepted. Program schedules, syllabuses, flyers will not be accepted.

3. The recertification fee must accompany your recertification application. The fee may change annually based upon the fiscal viability of the Certification Body. The Certification Board is self-sustaining through its own constituency as does not receive outside funds. (Please see current fee schedule).

Extensions Policy

Any Certified Prevention Specialist wishing to acquire an extension on expiring certification, must present a request for extension to the Board in writing. A 30 day grace period will be allowed under request. An additional 90 days (120 day extension from expiration of the certificate) may be granted at a cost of $50.
